

Based on directions furnished by JOHN THOMAS MASEN, Owner, Masen's Gun Shop, 7402 Harry Hines Boulevard, Agents C. RAY HALL and ALFRED D. WEBLEY went to the Trinity River bottom, entering a gate bearing sign, "Dallas County Flood Control," located in the vicinity of the Kornegay Grocery Store on Proctor Street.

Through visual observation, a place was observed where there were a number of beer cans with bullet holes and broken glass bottles. This area was checked and no empty shell casings of any description were located.
