Dear Sylvia

Checking - Did the Commission ever see the Zapruder film either in formal session or otherwise?

I note that Specter in questioning Shoney felt (V, 157) says "we want to have the Commission see these slides this afternoon. We have prepared them to show to you so that you can observe for yourself what we are bringing to you through the witness to give you a frame of reference and an orientation."

Do you know of any fact or data to modify or controvert the implication in the underlined words - the orientation was based only on the slides - not on the film not on the slides seen against the context of the film? Either by stupidity or cupidity this is villainy.

Yours

Town
