Dear Sylvia:

I am returning Ray Marcus' polemical piece to you, because I do not have his address. I found nothing in it that had not been illuminated before. While it is important to challenge Cohen, even if in the process no new arguments are raised, ~~that had not been discussed before,~~ I think that this should be done in the very pages from which Cohen spoke. I see no reason why to carry an article along these lines in T.M.O., since each element in it has been, on various occasions, presented to our readers. Do you agree with me? If not, let's talk about this before you return the piece to Marcus.

Love,

Menahem
