

Telephone call from Arnoni Saturday 11 am 5/28/66

Arnoni asked me to read him the cc of Vince's letter to Liberation re reviewing Epstein book...Said he wants to use my review, is going to press this weekend with July/August issue...Will now call Vince and feel him out about a switch, under which TMO will use SM review, and Vince can review for Liberation.

Read me cc Vince Letter to Dellinger declining to review Weisberg's book. Vince has moved a little way away from "St.Vincent" thanks to Arnoni's letter ("whipped butter") and he wrote Dellinger that he feels unable to review the W. book because, while it has merit and makes a contribution, W. has completely ignored the contributions of other researchers, thus failing to reflect the historical context, etc. Most surprising of all, Vince sent a cc of his letter declining to review the book (saying he did not wish to do a negative review because it did make some contribution) to Weisberg, as well as to Arnoni.
