Dear Menachem,

Thank you for sending me copies of your exchange of letters with Welsh and Weisberg, and more particularly for the copies of the June issue of TMO which arrived this morning! The presentation is very handsome and my head is in danger of swelling. Would it be possible to send me another ten copies? I am enclosing a check to cover costs.

I hope that my manuscript arrived safely. Again, I apologize for its unsightliness.

I am told that the Epstein book is expected from the Bindery at the end of this week, at which time review copies will be mailed. It should be in the book stores about the 6th of June.

With warm regards,

Sincerely yours,
