Dear Vince:

Well, yes, we'll see; and with the score of the differences in our respective analyses, judgments of people, etc. being what it is, I must concede, that your turn for being right is long overdue.

In the meantime, I shall of course read any manuscript I receive if only you can accomplish the miraculous feat of convincing your two collaborators to convince you to send it to me.

Regards for Livvy,
and you,

Menahem
