My dear Sylvia:

In enclosing this here article I am displaying a great deal of "chutzpeh." But so many people have been taking advantage of you that I am joining their ranks. What this is all about is the fact that I have not even read what I am forwarding to you, but instead, being so horrendously snowed under upon my return, I am sending the manuscript to you to be guided by you entirely. I only took a look at the subheadings, and judging by them, I would expect nothing new in this piece. Thanks and let me know.

Love,

Menahem
