Dear Mr. Bernabei,

I am sorry that I do not know the identity of the man in the checked suit, not for a fact, but he may possibly be an FBI agent named Bardwell D. Odum. Day testified that Odum accompanied him when he took the rifle from the Depository to the police building, saying that Odum was "the FBI agent who drove me in" (4H 264). That is the only clue to the man in the photograph, to my knowledge.

You might wish to ask Penn Jones, Jr., of the Midlothian Mirror, Midlothian, Texas, if he can identify the man in the photograph. Since he knows many of the Dallas police witnesses by sight, it may be that he would recognize the man with Day.

It is bitter and ironic that while we are still searching for the truth about the assassination of President Kennedy, we are witnessing the aftermath of the assassination of his brother. It is difficult not to despair.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Neagher
