Dear Sylvia,

Many thanks for your letter of the 15th <sup>Comments &</sup> with <sup>1</sup> enclosures re CE 237 & Judge Halleck's hearing.

I enclose 39 more pages of the Garrison book, which you will be able to fit into the appropriate places, Chronologically. The original page 1 has now been superseded.

Much of the book is now being typed. I am going over sections of the diary (the original part) and correcting it, deleting some bits, and adding identifications to names.

I shall finish the trial chapter, add a final reflective one, and make some changes in the 11 page "Confession" section. Then it will be finished - hopefully by the end of the month.

I received - to my surprise - a $200 check from Look magazine. They used a few snippets from me only, so I can't complain. The Look piece has had no publicity down here.

I think my section on the Sean Andrews trial is one of my better moments in the "diary". As usual I look forward to any comments you may have on the latest installment.

All best wishes,

Tom.

P.S. Many thanks for the SR piece on N.O. jazz
