Dear Sylvia,

Re: Robert Perrin. I have read a police report and autopsy of his death. I had assumed it must have been here, but we have no file on him. I now feel quite certain that I read this material in the National Archives, so I suggest your friends makes an inquiry there.

In my opinion, not only is his death inellegant to the case, but also Nancy Perrin Rich has "absolutely no claim to credence," (your phrase in another context) - an opinion arrived at through study of CE 3058-3062, and my observation of her in the film "Rush to Judgement".

Best wishes,
Tom.
