Dear Sylvia:

Are you familiar with this article by Bob Allen and Paul Scott? As far as I know, this is the first time anyone has drawn attention to this possibly very important point. I am embarrassed to say I was not looking for information on this in the Archives. As far as I know, this is the first time anyone in this office was made aware of this anomaly.

The article seems to be surprisingly well-written and well-researched (other than in attributing greater perspicuity to this office than was warranted), and I wonder if you have any comments. Do you know anything about any other work Scott and Allen have done?

Best wishes,

TOM BETHELL
