Washington, D.C.

Dear Tom,

I was disappointed not to receive the copy of the interview in which Raymond Lewis said that no long homemade paper bag had been recovered from the Depository. You must have some psychological block about mailing. Please pick up the copy right now, insert it in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, and send it down the nearest mail-chute. This is the last time I will bother you about this; but that goes two ways.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
