FOREWORD

This Bibliography covers the period 22 November 1963 to 31 December 1974 and is designed to assist study of the Assassination of John F. Kennedy.

It is hoped that, as far as Britain and Ireland are concerned, the Bibliography is definitive, but any information concerning omissions, especially from the English-speaking countries such as Australia, Canada, India, New Zealand and South Africa, etc., will be gratefully received by the Compiler at the addresses as below.

The material has been arranged in chronological, rather than in subject order, but in general terms the title of the article should readily identify itself to the serious student and researcher.

To our knowledge the various items listed here were never published in the United States of America, and it is therefore recommended to consult this effort in conjunction with other Bibliographies published in that country, as listed below, to obtain an overall picture and impression of the coverage of this event.

- (i) LIBRARY OF CONGRESS, Washington. D.C. September 1966.
- (ii) W. C. THOMPSON, San Antonio, Texas, October 1968 and December 1971.
- (iii) THOMAS M. McDADDE, "American Book Collector", Chicago, Illinois, Summer 1968 issue.
- (iv) EARL C. KUBICEK, "American Book Collector", Chicago, Illinois, September 1971 to January 1972 issues.
- (v) DAVID R. WRONE, "Wisconsin Magazine of History", Madison, Wisconsin, Autumn 1972 issue.
- (vi) COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE ASSASSINATIONS, Washington, D.C. December 1972.

LIECHTENSTEIN

"Rarewell America". James Hepburn (Pseudonym). Vaduz. Frontiers Publishing Co. September 1968. 418 pages. Illustrated. 1 Photograph. 1 map. 55 shillings.

There is quite a curious history concerning this Book. It was published in Liechtenstein, printed in Belgium, and distributed in Canada. Although available in Europe in several languages, it was rare in the United States of America.

An interesting article on the book's background: "The Mystery of the Black Books" by Warren Hinckle, appeared in the April 1973 issue of 'Esquire' pp. 128-131 and pp. 170-174.

There are also reports that a Film of the same title was made by the Publishers of the Book, but we do not have any further details.

WEST GERMANY

"Thlogy of Murder". Joachim Joesten. A novel analysis and interpretation of the John F. Kennedy, Robert F. Kennedy and Dr Martin Luther King assassinations, viewed as a whole. 1971. $125.00.

A mimeographed publication by the author in five parts, containing twelve volumes and two supplements. Nine volumes relate to the Assassination of John F. Kennedy. In addition Mr Joesten published a Fortnightly Newsletter "Truth Letter" from 15 September 1968 devoted entirely to reporting developments concerning these murders. On 15 October 1972 his ill-health finally forced it's suspension.
