Dear Miss Meagher:

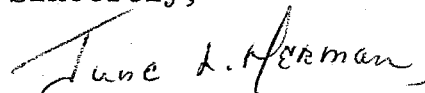

Thank you for your letter and partial manuscript. Needless to say, I found it extremely interesting as did other members of the editorial staff. However, I am sorry to relate that because of other books on this subject already on the market, we don't feel that we should go ahead and contract for another book which challenges the Warren Report.

Besides the two books which are available, there are several others that will be published in 1965. Unfortunately, the editorial board here felt forced to render a negative decision on your book.

The work is extremely interesting and I feel certain that some other publishing house might be interested in it, and I suggest that you do submit it elsewhere.

I wish you the best of luck.

Sincerely,

June L. Herman
