Mr. Joe R. Molina
4306 Brown
Dallas, Texas

Dear Mr. Molina,

In the course of research I am doing on the Warren Report and the Oswald case, I have read your testimony in Volume VI of the Hearings and Exhibits. It was appalling to realize the injustice and damage done to you by irresponsible statements by Dallas officials, and shocking to see that your employers at the Depository submitted abjectly to pressure and dismissed you after long service despite your complete innocence of any wrong-doing. This kind of indignity is, of course, all but inevitable whenever any segment of a society is permitted to become the arbiter of the acceptability of opinion and association. Unfortunately, many persons have been victimized and driven to desperation by the same kind of vicious treatment which you have suffered, and few have had the means to seek redress.

I have the impression that you attempted unsuccessfully to obtain transcripts from television stations of the remarks which damaged your reputation and led to the loss of your position, so that you could institute legal proceedings and obtain satisfaction from the courts. For this reason, I thought I should call to your attention the fact that the 26 volumes of Hearings and Exhibits of the Warren Commission, published by the U.S. Government Printing Office in November 1964, include material which may be helpful to you and which you may wish to submit to your attorney for an opinion. I refer to Commission Exhibits 2144, transcript of remarks by Chief Curry on television on November 23, 1963, and 2162, transcript of remarks by WFAA-TV commentator.

These 26 volumes should be available at a public library or university library in your city. If you should have difficulty in obtaining access to them, I would if necessary be glad to copy out the relevant portions of these transcripts and send them to you.

In writing to you, I am motivated solely by the desire to do everything possible to fight injustice and victimization of the innocent. My interest in the Oswald case stems from the belief that this man, charged with the most monstrous crime, did not have the opportunity to defend himself and that it is by no means certain that he was guilty. The enclosed abstract may be of some interest to you, in view of your involvement in the case.

With all good wishes,

(Mrs.) Sylvia Meagher
