Dear Professor Packer,

The lead editorial in the current issue (October 12th) of THE NATION indicates that you are preparing a critical evaluation of the Warren Commission report for a future issue.

I am taking the liberty of sending you herewith a copy of my letter of today to the editor of the NATION, commenting on that editorial. I am also enclosing a copy of my notes on a recent broadcast on WBAI, "20 Questions for the Warren Commission," as well as copies or excerpts from correspondence in which I have commented on the Warren Commission report and/or elements in the case against Oswald. Perhaps some of the observations will be of interest to you in preparing the critical analysis, to which I look forward with the greatest interest.

Unfortunately, time does not permit me to synthesize the questions and criticisms contained in the enclosed copies in a single cohesive essay; but I hope that, nevertheless, they will be of some value.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
