Dear Mr. Ockene,

As I indicated yesterday on the telephone, it will be a few days before I can ready a copy of the manuscript about which Ira Einhorn spoke to you. It occurs to me that meanwhile you might like to read two excerpts from the manuscript which have been published in The Minority of One, which I am enclosing herewith.

If you still wish to see the whole manuscript (about 600 pages of typescript) after reading the excerpts, please give me a ring—Plaza 4-1234 ext. 2024 or at home (evenings) Chelsea 2-4293.

Yours sincerely,
