

23 November 1966

Dear Bob,

Adrene

Thanks for alerting me to the disembarkation of Senator Russell. The rush to leave the sinking ship is under way--dizzying and dazzling.

I talked to our Eminent Reader on various matters but ~~did~~ not raise the subject of the manuscript. Nor did he. Perhaps the current excitements have pushed the ms. into the dim. Perhaps he has been reading, but doesn't like it.

If you are inclined to light a fire under the E. R., I promise not to holler for the Fire Department. Up to you--you doll.

Affectionately,