Robert Ockene

Attached is an analysis of the repeated collision between the assertions in the Warren Report, and the evidence in the 26 volumes. I trust that it will serve in place of the requested write-up ("The Commission Says" vs "Meagher says") you mentioned this morning. It can be mimeographed and handed out by your salesmen, or distributed sandwiched between Black Power and Peace literature handed out on Times Square.

I regret my lack of competence in matters of sales promotion,* which I am happy to leave entirely in the hands of the publishers.

Kind regards,

Sylvia Meagher
