Dear Mr. Ockene:

Responding to your good letters of July 20 and August 9, 1967, here is a statement you may wish to use on the back jacket of ACCESSORIES AFTER THE FACT:

"I have seen ACCESSORIES AFTER THE FACT in formation, and it was my privilege to publish parts of it in the pages of our monthly. What accounts for this being the by far most important book on the Kennedy assassination is the rare combination of traits of Sylvia Meagher's: a sharp-edged logic that unwinds the thread of evidence from the bulky knot of political conspiracy, expediency and camouflage; and an ethical integrity which precludes any self-serving or partisan favoritism at the expense of truth. Sylvia Meagher's objectivity is anything but moral indifference, and her moral outrage is anything but uninformed.

The Minority of One

I hope that the above is satisfactory.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

M. S. Arnoni
