

ACCESSORIES AFTER THE FACT

The Warren Commission, The Authorities and the Report

by Sylvia Meagher

introduction by Léo Sauvage

Sylvia Meagher is rapidly becoming known as one of the outstanding authorities on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and on the subsequent work of the Warren Commission.

In his introduction to Accessories After the Fact, Léo Sauvage (himself an early and well-regarded critic of "The Warren Report") writes, "Sylvia Meagher is the only person in the world who really knows every item hidden in the twenty-six volumes of Hearings and Exhibits, that is, the evidence on which "The Warren Report" is supposed to be based. She also knows all the items missing in those twenty-six volumes, that is, the evidence the Commission's members—or more often, lawyers—preferred not to see, or when they could not help seeing it, to forget.

"Accessories After the Fact not only confirms the author's scientific mind and the exhaustive thoroughness of her research, but it reveals the penetrating insight she has brought to the study of the case, and the logic of her reasoning. She is often able to add new information, sometimes a new angle, and always her presentation of the point under discussion is the most documented, the most scrupulously accurate, in short, the most reliable. Of all the books written about the Kennedy assassination, including "The Warren Report," Accessories After the Fact comes closest to being the reference book on the subject."

Mrs. Meagher has worked in the field of international public health since 1947, as an administrator and writer of analytical reports. She has previously published the Subject Index to the Warren Report, and has written several magazine articles.
