Ranger, Texas

Inspector Kelley arrived at Dallas about 11 pm 11/22/63. He despatched Lawson to accompany Vince Drain to Washington with the physical evidence. Lawson and Drain left Carswell AFB at 3.10 am, arriving at Andrews AFB at 6.30 am Saturday.

Secret Service agent Johnsen of the White House Detail was on guard duty outside the emergency room at Parkland Hospital. Just before Johnsen left the hospital with the body, a hospital security officer named Wright brought a bullet to him. Wright told Johnsen that the bullet had been found "on a stretcher with President Kennedy may have been placed on." He said also that he had found rubber gloves, a stethoscope, and other medical paraphenalia "on this same stretcher."

This information is presented in a memorandum by Johnsen at 7.30 p.m. 11/22/63 in which he says that it was not determined who had used the stretcher in question or if the President had used it.
