Dear Sylvia,

I am enclosing a copy of Dan Rather's recent remarks on the Kennedy assassination and Watergate. The last sentence seems particularly intriguing--if that's the right word--since it suggests that Rather has some knowledge of an unofficial reopening but can't reveal his source.

Bud called from Deep Creek Lake last night and I briefly mentioned your idea of doing a subject index on Watergate materials. He is interested and will check with Congress to see if they have any such project planned.

I think it would help if you could outline the idea in two or three short paragraphs and send it to Bud. He is usually very busy with visitors and phone calls, but if he has something on paper he usually gets around to acting on it.

My best regards,

Jim

P. S. I will send the Wrone article to you under separate cover in a day or two.
