Dear Sylvia,

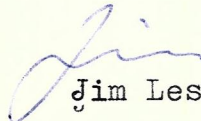

Thanks for sending us the xerox of the Village Voice article on Garrison. The fellow who wrote it came down here and talked at some length with Bob Smith. Bob told me that the deleted Grassy Knoll assassin Garrison named to the Voice is Larry Crafard.

I am sending you a xerox copy of Prof. Wrone's article, "The Assassination of John Fitzgerald Kennedy: An Annotated Bibliography." Although the article appears in the Autumn, 1972 issue of the Wisconsin Magazine of History, that issue only saw the light of day about two weeks ago. Should you write another book some day, I think his encomiums will stand you in good stead with a publisher.

If you have not already sensed it, I think that you will soon learn that we are in for a spate of JFK assassination stories, including books, a movie film, and at least one suspicious true confession. This timing is probably partly due to the fact that this is the tenth anniversary of the assassination. It will probably stir the pot some more, but to what end, I don't know.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Jim Lesar
