Dear Sylvia,

Thanks very much for the check to pay for the reprints of your article. Copies have now been mailed out to all members of our Board of Directors and to the other persons you suggested.

We will probably reprint your article in our next newsletter. I'm not sure just when our next newsletter will happen, but probably in the near future.

From time to time over the past several months Bob Smith and I have discussed the possibility of having the Committee reprint in pamphlet form various article or memos dealing with certain aspects of the assassinations. We would plan on selling the pamphlets at a nominal price--probably 50 cents to a dollar--and split whatever proceeds there might be with the author(s). If it is feasible, would you have any objections to our reprinting the Givens article in such a pamphlet?

I am sending you a xerox copy of the Sputnik article I mentioned over the phone. I think it is too well written and moderately stated to originate from Joesten this time. But where it leads and what its curious timing means I don't know.

Best regards,

Jim
