December 29, 1964

My dear Mr. Corson,

Thank you so very much for your letter. It gives me courage to continue the fight to find the truth. I, too, am an unimportant person. I am an accountant working part-time at home. My husband is a pattern grader and cutter in a dress contracting shop. Nobody pays any attention to my words concerning this evil set loose on the world by the assassination of our president. I have tried in every way I know how to bring these things to the attention of first the Warren Commission and second (by means of copies of my communications with the Commission) to many others, including the N.Y. Times. Not one answered me except Thomas Buchanan, the man who wrote "Who Killed Kennedy?" Wouldn't you think that someone would have told me I was wrong? Why didn't someone tell me I was wrong and why I was wrong?

I am sending you the same copies that I have sent previously to the N.Y. Times and many others. You may have them to keep and show to anybody you choose. I am also sending you a copy of the statement to keep and show to anyone else. Yours was the only answer I received to that letter, also.

I thought a long while that I was a lonely voice crying out in the wilderness until, just recently, I attended a debate regarding the truth of the Report between Mark Lane and some other lawyers. The, literally, thousands of people that were there, sitting in the aisles, standing against the walls, and turned away at the door convinced me that we are not alone--there are thousands of little people like you and I--all not satisfied--all wanting the truth.

Please read these papers and tell me what you think. My husband has ordered the 26 volumes for me. Even with the report I have found so many other discrepancies and mysterious things that it is almost unbelievable.

Do you know any newsman you could talk to? Maybe he could give you a reason why there seems to be a conspiracy of silence among the news media to keep these things from the public. Why? If it is "for the good of our country" who is being protected? I do not wish to harm my country but why would it harm us to know the truth?

Write to me and tell me your views. I'll send you more interesting mysteries when I get on my feet again. Thank you again for your letter.

Sincerely yours,

Lillian Castellano
