Dear Mr. Corson,

I have had a letter from Lillian Castellano in Hollywood, California, in which she suggested that I might contact you. I would like very much to read Mrs. Castellano's correspondence with the Warren Commission. She tells me that she had sent you a complete set of copies and that you might be good enough to let me read them, since she has no more copies left.

I took the liberty of trying to telephone your home this afternoon but you were not in. Perhaps I will be able to reach you over the weekend but if not I thought I would mail this letter now and hope to hear from you. Please feel free to telephone, if that is most convenient.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
