Dear Miss Meagher:

I do not know if you are Miss or Mrs., but am sure you will not take offense if I put down your name incorrectly.

As I stated over the phone, I will begin a vacation of two weeks on April 1st, and will be back in Manhattan on April 17th. I might add that I will return to work at 4 PM that day, IF there is no strike. I work for the NY Times.

There is no need to return Mrs. Casstellano's correspondence in a hurry. Should you desire to show it to others who want to hear and read both sides of the argument, then you are free to do so.

Should you find it necessary to call me on the phone, the best time to get me at home is about 10 AM. Since the death of my wife, I have been living with my mother, and she is at present in a wheel chair as a result of a hip operation. My mother had a fall when running to answer the phone, so it is better that she ignore the telephone bell when alone.

You may wonder how I can go on a vacation, so the answer is that my sister will have my mother at her home for the two and a half weeks, as she figures I need a vacation.

When in Fort Lauderdale, I will meet some people who doubt that Oswald was the assassin, and reason that it was quite easy to pin it on a man who had a bad record.

I am including the letter I received from the committee headed by Mr. Mark Lane, as I wish to keep all of the papers in the one envelope.

Yours very sincerely,

Harry D. Carson
