Chronology of the
New Orleans Investigation
prepared Jan. 1969 (SM)

7/2/67

February 17, 1967

Newspapers revealed for the first time that District Attorney Jim Garrison was conducting an investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy.

February 18, 1967

Press reports mentioned that Captain David Ferrie might be involved in District Attorney Garrison's inquiry into a possible conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy.

February 22, 1967

Captain David Ferrie was found dead in his New Orleans apartment.

February 23, 1967

Newspapers quoted District Attorney Garrison as saying that there was no evidence that Lee Harvey Oswald had killed anyone in Dallas on November 22, 1963.

March 1, 1967

Clay L. Shaw, prominent New Orleans civic leader, was arrested by District Attorney Garrison on a charge of conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy.

March 8, 1967

Bernard J.

Judge/Bagert refused to dismiss the charge filed against Clay Shaw and denied six of seven points in a motion to force District Attorney Garrison to file a bill of particulars. A preliminary hearing, requested by District Attorney Garrison, was scheduled for March 14, 1967.

March 14, 1967

At the preliminary hearing in the case of Clay Shaw, witness Perry Raymond Russo testified that he had been present at a party in the apartment of David Ferrie at which Ferrie, "Clem Bertrand" (whom Russo identified as Clay Shaw), and Lee Harvey Oswald conspired in his hearing to assassinate President Kennedy. Russo testified that this meeting took place in October 1963.

March 16, 1967

Defense counsel for Clay Shaw at the preliminary hearing attempted to introduce the Warren Report into evidence. "You're not serious, are you?" Judge Bagert said, "Motion denied." (The New York Times, March 16, 1967, page 39, column 2)
