Dear Mr Cook,

I have your telephone number but not your home address so I am hoping that THE NATION will be good enough to forward this letter to you.

We were sorry that you were unable to join us on Sunday the 3rd to discuss the Warren Report. It was an interesting and valuable exchange of information. Have you any news about your article in RAMPARTS? I am happy to say that I have accepted an offer for publication of my subject index and I hope it will be out early next year.

The main reason for this letter is to make sure that you are aware that Rex Stout has built his latest book (Nero Wolfe) around your book on the FBI. One of my friends just read the book and told me about it. It is called The Doorbell Rang, Viking Press, 1965, and apparently the author shares your view of the FBI. I thought you would like to know about that.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
