Sylvia:

I'm ~~am~~ ashamed I've been so long between letters, but you haven't been doing so well either! Here is a notation from the Dallas Morning News, September 2, 1966:

"A 27-year-old former Dallas night club dancer was shot to death Thursday in a hotel room in downtown Omaha, Neb. Police identified the woman as Mrs. Marilyn April Walle, who danced under the name of "Delilah" in an Omaha restaurant. She had danced under the name of Marilyn Moon at the Carousel Club which was operated by Jack Ruby (in Dallas)...Police arrested her husband of less than one month for ~~the~~ questioning...Mrs. Walle was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs Theodore Fink, of Islip, Long Island, NY...Police said Walle and the dancer were married August 7 in New Orleans and that they understood Walle was from that area. Detectives said Mrs. Walle had been shot several times with a .38-caliber revolver. They said eight spent cartridges were found in the hotel room."

However, the life span of people in this kind of work is generally short. This was probably a love-thing, crime of passion, what-have-you. I pass it along only because ~~it~~ of the Jack Ruby link.

Surely hope you and Penn are having a good talk through this week. Please write me when you have a chance.

Much love,
S.
