Information was previously received from a BETH COX, who had a boy friend named HOWARD COHEN stationed in Metz, France, with the United States Army. According to this information, one of COHEN's friends "translated or decoded the G.I. paper's headlines to read, 'Kennedy will be assassinated Thanksgiving Day,' and later changed it to read the very day he died."

On March 4, 1964, Lieutenant Colonel W. L. ADAMS, Jr., Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, furnished the following additional information:

Captain HOWARD C. COWEN, assigned to the United States Army Depot at Metz, France, advised on February 18, 1964, that during the evening of November 22, 1963, he conversed with an acquaintance named DENNIS DE WITT. During the conversation, D. WITT said that a friend of his, EUGENE DINKIN, had predicted President KENNEDY's assassination for November 22, 1963. According to DE WITT, DINKIN had first predicted that the assassination would take place on November 28, 1963, but later reportedly changed the date to November 22, 1963.

According to Colonel ADAMS, Captain COWEN reported the above conversation to officials of the 766th Army Intelligence Corps Detachment at Metz. A short time later, Captain COWEN also related his conversation to a girl friend named BETH COX. Her present address, according to Colonel ADAMS, is LISA BETH COX, 618 West 118th Street, New York 27, New York.

Colonel ADAMS stated that EUGENE B. DINKIN was the subject of a closed investigation by the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, United States Army Communications Zone, Europe. He advised further that according to
