

UN Conference of Ministers responsible for Social Welfare (September 1968)

Nothing is more sinister
Than a social welfare Minister
An alligator
I'd rather be marooned with
Than a co-ordinator,
Or administrator,
Or a leadership-role player
In the social field.
Get me a shield!
The mind boggles
At these poly-woggles
They drive you to the brink
Of unthinkable profanity
As they institutionalize
Ministerial insanity.

The Deans of social welfare
Could use some mental health care.
