Dear Mr. Lipton,

I am sorry to say that I am not entirely satisfied with service thus far on clippings dealing with the Warren Commission Report on the Assassination of President Kennedy.

I have never received a story published about a week ago by Jimmy Breslin in a Boston paper--an item that I needed quite urgently. (I have been told that there was such a story but have not seen it for myself, so if I am wrong, I apologize.)

Also, can you speed up the mailing somewhat?

Another item that I did not receive is a two-page article in BOOKS June 1966, but perhaps that is on its way.

Yours sincerely,
