Dear Ed,

Reminders

1. You suggested that you would send me a copy of the article in Der Spiegel. I would like to read it and will send it back to you promptly.
2. You suggested also that you would have Esquire send me new material (from Mark Lane?) on Bogard and other matters.
3. When convenient please return the Buchanan book, Harold Feldman's article, and Mark Lane's "brief" in the National Guardian.
4. I am sending you herewith excerpts from the letter <sup>(X)</sup> I told you about yesterday; when I receive a copy of the letter from Fletcher Knebel to Ramparts, which I requested from Paul Hoch, I will send it to you. Also, I did ask Vince last night to look for the SS interview with Allan Sweatt when he goes to the Archives later this week. By the way, after getting a report from Vince on his talk with Jacob Cohen last Sunday, I have decided to cancel my appointment with Cohen and have written him saying that I can't make it after all.

Hastily,

Sylvia Meagher
