Dear Edward Jay Epstein,

In spite of the passage of time, you may remember me--random indoorer, sometime-colleague, etc. I take the liberty of writing for the limited purpose of retrieving my property: item--one book, Who Killed Kennedy? by Thomas Buchanan. Please pop it into enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope, turn down the hatch, and anchors awigh! Simple?

Be assured that I will continue to follow your career with unflagging interest--from afar, of course, since I have a fear of great heights.

Yours, Aye,

S. Meagher
