Dear John,

I have just completed the enclosed article for submittal to another magazine but it occurred to me that its format is so compatible with your design for the December issue that perhaps I should offer you a look at it.

At the same time, I realize that you are already pressed for space and budget and may not be able to consider it, regardless of suitability for graphic presentation or clarity of presentation for a general audience. If that is the case, I should be grateful if you would mail it back today, as I will need this copy to send elsewhere.

I hope that my session with Tomi McKerrow on Friday satisfied the concern of your legal advisers and I am sure that you will take the extra time it required into consideration, if that is possible.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
