

10 September 1966

Mr. John Berendt
Esquire Magazine
488 Madison Avenue
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Berendt,

I have rewritten one of the items in "Truth Was Their Only Client" for the sake of greater clarity. I am enclosing the revised page, which should be substituted for the corresponding page in the copy I sent you. (The rewritten item is the last one on that page.)

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher

Enclosure

The Evidence

"The first time he had come...he had parked down the street...My best judgment is that the license plate was not visible...not visible from my house"--Ruth Paine (3H 100).

Jenner It is impossible...impossible to see any license plate on either of the two automobiles parked at the curb...

Howlett Yes; that's correct ...you cannot even see the license plate, much less any of the numbers. (9H 398)

The Evidence

"Our investigation has revealed that Oswald did not indicate on his application that others, including an 'A. Hidell,' would receive mail through the box ...Post Office Box 2915 in Dallas..."--FBI report (CE 2585, question 12).

The Evidence

"Mrs. Tarrant's stated as best she recalls, on Thursday night, October 31, 1963 Lee Harvey Oswald appeared at the cashier's cage and presented the above check to her and requested that it be cashed..."--FBI report (CE 1165)

The Findings

"Marina Oswald had taken down the license number of Hosty's car on one of his visits and had given it to her husband." (WR 660)

The Findings

"It is not known whether the application for post office box 2915 listed 'A. Hidell' as a person entitled to receive mail at this box...the portion of the application which lists names of persons, other than the applicant, entitled to receive mail was thrown away after the box was closed on May 14, 1963." (WR 121)

The Findings

"On Friday, November 1, Oswald did cash a Texas Unemployment Commission check for $33 at a...supermarket in Irving..." (WR 331)