Conspirator Lancaster

By A. H. WEILER

THE mystery surrounding the death of President John F. Kennedy may never be solved, but rumors and theories continue to proliferate. Was Lee Harvey Oswald alone? Was he merely the agent of a radical group that has been responsible for other political killings? Was he linked to an international conspiracy to sap the spirit from the American public?

Speculations persist, and now even the moviemakers are beginning to make conjectures. Producer Edward Lewis, for example, feels that he and screenwriter Dalton Trumbo have come up with a provocative version of what might have taken place on that tragic day in 1963. Their movie, called "Executive Action," begins shooting next May in Los Angeles and will star Burt Lancaster as a sinister Texan, long on money and short on scruples, who spawns the plot to kill the President. David Miller will direct.
