

BERNARD FENSTERWALD JR.
4036 NORTH 27TH STREET
ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA 22207

Curriculum Vitae

- - - - -

Current Position: Chief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, Room 3216 New Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. (202/225-5617)

Home Telephone: 703/527-4580

Place of Birth: Nashville, Tennessee

Date of Birth: August 2, 1921

Education: Grammar and High School in Nashville, Tennessee
Harvard College, BS, 1942, magna cum laude
Harvard Law School, LLB, 1949
School of Advanced International Studies
(Washington, D.C.), MA, 1950
Cambridge (England) University, 1954-55, Post-graduate research on American Isolationism

Family: Wife and four children

Military Service: Lieutenant, USNR, 1942-46, SW Pacific Area

Employment: 1950-56 Assistant to Legal Adviser, Department of State
1956 Adviser on Foreign Policy to Vice Presidential Candidate, the late Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee
1957-58 Administrative Assistant to the late Senator Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., of Missouri
1959-1960 Chief Counsel, Subcommittee on Constitutional Amendments, U. S. Senate
1961-63 Staff Director, Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly, U. S. Senate

Teaching Experience: School of Advanced International Studies, Instructor in International Law

Publications: Articles in Harvard Law Review, Federal Bar Journal, Arbitration Journal, The Journal of Conflict Resolution, etc.

Member of Bar: Massachusetts, District of Columbia, and U. S. Supreme Court