Dear Sylvia,

I would like to ask consideration for a concerted effort to declassify more, if not all, of the withheld documents on the Kennedy assassination. In August of this year Mr. Marion Johnson told me that the agencies involved had not begun reviewing the withheld documents although 1970 is designated as the next time of review after 1965. I spoke to Bud Fensterwald about this and I intend to write the Archivist, the agencies involved and then Congress. If you agree, please do what you can and tell me of other ways that this inaction might be attacked.

Sincerely yours,

A. P. Kimbrough
