

(Copy of handwritten note on personal stationery)

26 October 1967

Dear Maggie,

Ray's note with the news of your accident caused me real distress.
I am very sorry indeed that you should have sustained this injury---a very poor reward for the courage and endurance you have shown in the face of real personal adversity in the last two years, more than once.

I send you my very genuine wishes for a speedy and full recovery, and an end to these tribulations.

Sincerely,

Sylvia