HOLLOWAY related that on November 21, 1963, he learned that the President of the United States was scheduled to arrive at Love Field at approximately 11:20 AM, November 22, 1963. He said he also learned that the President was to be accompanied by his wife, Vice President JOHNSON and Mrs. JOHNSON, and Governor JOHN CONNALLY and his wife. He said that upon arrival at Dallas, Texas, this group was to proceed by motorcade to the Trade Mart Building located at 2100 Stemmons Freeway, Dallas, Texas, where President KENNEDY was to make a public address. HOLLOWAY stated when he learned of this schedule he planned to go to Love Field on November 22, 1963, to see the President and to take movies of him and his entourage.

HOLLOWAY advised that on November 22, 1963, he left his parents' residence, Mr. & Mrs. P. D. HOLLOWAY, 604 Calyx Circle, Dallas, Texas, and proceeded in his mother's car to Love Field, arriving there at about 10:45 AM. At about 11 o'clock, HOLLOWAY stated he proceeded to Gate 28 at Love Field, where he understood the President was due to arrive. He said he had his 8 mm Keystone Camera, Model 60, loaded with Kodachrome II Film with him and, prior to the President's arrival, took some crowd scenes. He said he also took some film sequences of the arrival of Vice President JOHNSON's plane, as well as the arrival of the President's plane. HOLLOWAY stated he took about five feet of movie film as the President and Mrs. KENNEDY deplaned, and also got one short sequence of the President as he was shaking hands with some individuals in the crowd who were there to greet him. Field, HOLLOWAY stated he got into his mother's car to return it to her. He said on the road leading from the airport two young men were hitchhiking and he stopped and gave them a ride. HOLLOWAY related that at Industrial Boulevard and Stemmons Freeway there was a traffic tie-up and he was obliged to stop. He said that, while stopped, he noticed there were eight or ten pickets at this intersection. He said they were carrying anti-KENNEDY banners and had tape over their mouths. He said he did not know the significance of the tape over the mouths of the pickets. HOLLOWAY advised he was at this intersection for just a couple of minutes and was then directed by the police officer there to proceed. HOLLOWAY said he proceeded under Stemmons Freeway, turned left on the access road, and then onto Stemmons Freeway. He said he proceeded a few hundred feet and stopped his car, recalling that the Presidential motorcade would be along on Stemmons Freeway proceeding in the opposite direction. He said he got out of his car with the intention of taking some movies of the Presidential motorcade from the median strip and was in the process of moving to this location when he saw the red lights and heard the sirens of the Presidential motorcade traveling north on Stemmons Freeway at a break-neck speed. He said he thought the speed they were traveling was unusual but, nevertheless, was able to get a short film sequence as the motorcade passed near his position.

HOLLOWAY advised he then returned to his car and proceeded to his parents' house. He said he dropped off the two young hitchhikers on Jefferson Street in Oak Cliff. Upon arriving home, HOLLOWAY said he was met by his mother, who informed him that President JOHN F. KENNEDY had been shot. HOLLOWAY stated he remained at home for awhile listening to the radio reports and then, as scheduled, returned to his employment at Trans-Texas Airways at Love Field.

HOLLOWAY advised that, a few days after Thanksgiving, he took the film of the Presidential motorcade for development to the Glendale Camera Shop, 4442 South Marsalis, Dallas, Texas, which camera shop is owned by WYMAN BARR. HOLLOWAY stated on leaving the film he informed BARR that the roll of film contained some sequences of the Presidential motorcade and told BARR, if he would like, he could review the film when it was returned after being developed.

HOLLOWAY advised that in early December, 1963, he went to the Glendale Camera Shop to pick up his film and, at that time, he and WYMAN BARR viewed the film. He said BARR expressed an interest in it and said he knew of some others who had some film sequences of the Presidential motorcade.

HOLLOWAY stated in the latter part of January, 1964, he was contacted by WYMAN BARR, who informed him that a number of people who had taken movies of the Presidential motorcade had joined together and planned to put the film sequences into one movie and to market it commercially. HOLLOWAY stated that BARR told him he could join the group and share in any profit made on the film. HOLLOWAY advised he was not interested and, when BARR said he would give him $50.00 for his film and take the gamble on making this money, he accepted BARR's offer and gave BARR his film, signing a release for any right to it. HOLLOWAY stated BARR also informed him that should he, BARR, make any money on the film, he would give HOLLOWAY an additional $100.00. He further stated that BARR gave him a duplicate roll of the film for his personal use.

A week or so following the above contact by BARR, HOLLOWAY said he was contacted by a woman, name unrecalled, who expressed an interest in his film. HOLLOWAY said he informed her that he had sold his film to WYMAN BARR.

HOLLOWAY stated he did not know, nor did he ever have any contact with either HEE HARVEY STALD or JACK RUBY.
