RICHARD BECKER STEWART, Camera Department Manager, Sanger-Harris Department Store, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, advised he resides at 6720 Greenwich Street, Dallas, Texas. He said he was born October 31, 1943, at Staten Island, New York.

STEWART advised that on November 22, 1963, he was employed as a salesman in the Camera Department at the Sanger-Harris Department Store located at Main and Lamar Streets, Dallas, Texas. STEWART stated that on instruction of his supervisor, BRYANT BOREN, he was familiarizing himself with the operation of a Bolex 8 mm camera. He said he knew the Presidential motorcade was due to pass by Sanger-Harris Department Store and stated that shortly before noon or thereabouts he took up a position on the southwest corner of Austin at Main Street. He said as the Presidential motorcade passed he took about one or two feet of film of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY in the Presidential motorcade. He said after the motorcade passed he continued to take film of the general area to use up the film he had in the camera. About a week following the assassination of President KENNEDY, STEWART said he sent his film to Kodak for processing. He said when the film returned that he, BRYANT BOREN, and ALAN RHODES viewed the film. STEWART said BOREN wanted the film and he gave it to him.

STEWART advised that ALAN RHODES, also employed in the Camera Department of the Sanger-Harris Department Store located at Main and Lamar Streets, viewed the motorcade with him and took some 35 mm still pictures of the motorcade.

STEWART stated he learned from BRYANT BOREN that a number of people who had taken movies of the Presidential motorcade had joined together and incorporated under the name of the Dallas Cinema Associates. He said this organization made a film of the Presidential motorcade and planned to market it. He said that BOREN told him that if he, BOREN, made any money on the film he would give STEWART $50. STEWART said he is not in any way affiliated with the Dallas Cinema Associates.

STEWART stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never met JACK RUBY. He said he may have seen RUBY in the Sanger-Harris Department Store but could not recall any specific instance.
