JULES ERNEST SPIEGEL, Salesman, Southwest Fixtures Company, 907 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment regarding film sequences of the Presidential motorcade taken by him on November 22, 1963. SPIEGEL advised he was born April 19, 1916, Frankfurt, Germany, and presently resides at 2723 Crest Ridge Drive, Dallas 28, Texas.

SPIEGEL advised that, per the instructions of the owner of Southwest Fixtures Company, the store was closed at about 11:55 AM, on the morning of November 22, 1963, for the purpose of allowing all employees to view the Presidential motorcade, which was scheduled at that time to pass a block from the store at approximately 12:15 PM.

SPIEGEL advised he, accompanied by GAYLORD ANGLISH, a fellow salesman at Southwest Fixtures, took up a position on the southeast corner of Main and Lamar Streets to await the motorcade. SPIEGEL advised that, as the motorcade approached, he climbed on top of a metal coin-operated newspaper dispenser to obtain a better view of the motorcade in order to secure some 8 mm movie shots with his camera. He advised he took about two to three feet of film, using a Bell & Howell Zoomatic, Director Series, utilizing Kodachrome II 8 mm Movie Film. SPIEGEL advised that, following the passing of the motorcade, he took the remainder of the roll of the crowds in the area and returned to the store about 12:30 to 12:35 PM. He advised he was unaware of the shooting of the President until about 12:45 PM, when a fellow employee turned on a store radio.

He stated that about the last of November, 1963, he mailed his roll of film to the Kodak Company for processing and received the processed roll the first week in December, 1963.

SPIEGEL advised that about the middle of December, 1963, he went to a camera store in the Casa Linda Section of Dallas to purchase some camera equipment and, during the course of conversation with the proprietor, he advised the proprietor he had some film sequences of the Presidential motorcade. SPIEGEL stated the proprietor told him he had received an inquiry from a Mrs. GEBERTZ inquiring of persons with film sequences of the Presidential motorcade, and the proprietor asked SPIEGEL for his name and address, in the event this party called again.

SPIEGEL advised that around the end of December, 1963, he received a call from a Mr. FARR, who asked him if he cared to exchange duplicate copies of film for personal use, to which SPIEGEL advised he agreed to attend a meeting to view other film sequences to see if he might be interested.

SPIEGEL stated that around the middle of January, 1964, he received a call from a Mrs. HAYS, who stated she would like to view his film and, accordingly, made an appointment to come to SPIEGEL's house to view the film. He advised Mrs. HAYS and a RUDY BRENNER visited his home that evening and, after viewing his film, advised him they liked the sequences he had, and asked him to join a group of several film holders in making up a long film for which each participating member would receive a duplicate of the composite film.

SPIEGEL advised that, following several meetings of other film holders, a group, totaling eighteen in number, incorporated under the name "Dallas Cinema Associates, Inc.," for the purpose of distribution and sale of the completed film on the home-movie market.

SPIEGEL stated he has never at any time, to his knowledge or recollection, had any dealings either personal or business with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.
