Dear Miss Narr:

I am aware that the letter you sent me was intended for publication rather than for a personal reply. I will probably publish it in our pages, but I also cannot resist an urge to reply to it.

Whether Garrison reads, or likes, TMO, and whether he is or is not the only man in this category, does not make his evidence in the assassination case one iota more true or false. It is not my attitude that those "on my side" may get away with murder, but those "on the other side" must be maligned, no matter what.

Yes, such is my ego, and I wish you shared it.

Sincerely,

M. S. Arnoni
