Reagan Assures Thorough Review of Bradley Case

Mr. Edwin Meese III, legal affairs secretary for Governor Ronald Reagan of California, wrote Dr. Carl McIntire on December 26 in response to his telegram:

"The attorney for Mr. Bradley has requested an extradition hearing, which will be granted by the Governor's Office, if and when the requisition for extradition arrives from Louisiana.

"The Governor has asked me to assure you that this case will be given a thorough review before final action concerning extradition is taken."
