

The New Orleans
Investigation

Cast of Characters

Sergio Arcacha Smith, head of Cuban exile groups, linked to Ferrie, moved to Dallas 1963
Alvin Beauboeuf, arrested with Ferrie 11/25/63
Bernard J. Bagert, Judge at Shaw hearing
Guy Banister, ex-FBI agent, private detective, linked Cubans, died heart attack June 1964
Thomas M. Brahney, Judge at Shaw hearing
Donald Branch, mentioned in "Miami tape" convicted for bombing home of newspaper editor
Matthew S. Braniff, Judge at Shaw hearing
Vernon Bundy, x-narcotics addict, testified he saw Shaw with Oswald 1963 Pontchartrain Lake
Julio Buznero, alleged guest at Ferrie party
Philip D. Carter, Newsweek reporter, traced Arcacha to Dallas
Dr. Nicholas Chetta, coroner, did autopsy on Ferrie
Melvin Coffey, friend who accompanied Ferrie to Texas 11/23/63
Thomas Compton, friend of Ferrie, Hammond, La., researcher on narcotics addiction
Al Crouch, interviewed Russo for Baton Rouge TV
Raymon Cummings, Dallas ex-cab driver, alleges took Oswald and Ferrie to Ruby club early 1963
J.B. Dauenhauer, subpoenaed by Garrison for questioning 3/7/67, ex-bookkeeper Trade Mart
Don DeLone, Port official, said Shaw in San Francisco 11/22/63
Shirley Dial, motel clerk, Galveston, re Ferrie on 11/23/63
Donald Doodie, knew Clay Shaw, questioned by grand jury 3/24/67
Mary Doveri, motel clerk Galveston re Ferrie presence 11/23/63
Irving Dymond, attorney for Clay Shaw
Dr. Esmond A. Fatter, hypnotized Russo for Garrison
Lee Fletcher, porter Alamotel, Houston re Ferrie presence 11/23/63
Anthony Gerrets, Secret Service agent who interviewed Jack Martin
G. Wray Gill, attorney for Carlos Marcello, employed Ferrie 11/22/63
Pascual Enrique Ruedolo Gongora, alleged by Stanley Ross of El Tiempo to be member of one of four assassination teams sent by Castro, see CE 1444 Manuel Garcia Gonzales, may be unidentified man in Pizzo photo (Oswald handing out leaflets New Orleans street 8/16/63); wanted on narcotics charge
William Gurvich, a chief investigator for Garrison
Sheriff Louis Heyd, responsible for security, Clay Shaw hearing
Louis Ivon, chief investigator for Garrison
Rosemary James, reporter, States-Item; interviewed Ferrie 2/21/67
Herman S. Kahlman, assistant district attorney New Orleans
Frank Klein, former District Attorney, involved in arrest of Ferrie 11/25/63
Al Landry, friend of Ferrie who had to be extricated by Russo
George Lardner, reporter, last person to see Ferrie alive
James Lewallen, subpoenaed by Garrison, friend of Ferrie, works at Michoud (see Alba testimony)

David Lewis, baggage handler and "private detective," knew Ferrie
Clyde Limbaugh, singer, claims he saw Oswald and Tippit with Ruby before 11/22/63
James R. Liscombe, ex-convict, created disturbance outside courthouse at Shaw hearing
Layton Maartens, friend of Ferrie, indicted for perjury by grand jury 4/6/67
Betty McManes, subject of a warrant issued by Garrison, denies she was at Ferrie party
Dante Marachini, mentioned in connection with "Castro teams of assassins"
Carlos Marcello, Mafia figure, Ferrie worked for his lawyer Gill
Jack Martin, said Ferrie and Oswald were linked, then admitted his story was false
Sandra Moffett, allegedly present at Ferrie's party, per Russo
Gordon Novel, ex-owner New Orleans bar; ordered arrested by Garrison; looks like Oswald
Malcolm V. O'Hara, judge at Shaw hearing, said to be hostile toward Garrison
Al Oser, assistant District Attorney New Orleans
Salvatore Panzeca, attorney for Shaw
Lefty Peterson, alleged by Russo to have been a guest at Ferrie's party
George Piazza, attorney for James Lewallen
Joseph M. Rault, Jr., financial backer of Garrison (Truth and Consequences)
John W. Rice, Secret Service agent, interviewed Jack Martin
Willard E. Robertson, financial backer of Garrison
Perry Raymond Russo, witness vs Clay Shaw at hearing
David Snyder, reporter, New Orleans States-Item, went to Ferrie's apt. 2/21/67
Arthur Edward Strout, Boston dishwasher, claims photo of Oswald/Ruby/Russo at Carousel
Miguel Torres, 26-year-old Cuban, alleged former neighbor of Oswald's, transferred from State Prison to Orleans Parish jail for questioning 1/30/67
Edward Wegman, attorney for Clay Shaw
Dr. Ronald A. Welsh, pathologist, studied Ferrie autopsy
Sam "Monk" Zelden, attorney for Dean Adams Andrews, Jr.

Meagher 4/7/67