

Dec. 14, 1970

Dear Mrs. Meagher:

I have finally received an answer from one of the lawyers . David Belin allows as how your allegations are false and libelous, but he does not go into specifics. He says he will answer if he is given an agreement in advance to publish his entire reply at the same time your article appears.

I suppose what I shall tell him is that I will agree to publish his reply--if I publish your article. If, by any chance, he should demolish your arguments, I wouldn't want to print either. But I don't see how he can really answer all ~~xx~~ of your evidence to my satisfaction. Oh yes, he also asks that I take out all libelous allegations pertaining to his conduct as an attorney.

This should prove to be interesting.

Christmas cheers,

Keye W. Throott