Lee Harvey Oswald's 1962 Income Tax Return -

He filed it on January 29, 1963. A letter was enclosed. The letter is printed in CD 107, pp. 38, 39. In the letter, LHO says he earned $727.81 at J-C-S and earned $626.25 at Leslie Welding, for a total of $1,356.06. ($727.81 and $626.25 actually amount to $1,354.06). See Continuing Inquiry for September 1977.

We need to see the "Russian letter" found at 214 W. Neely on Nov. 24, 1963. Supposedly, there was some English on the page. We are not told the English content. See CD 7, p. 331 (FBI Lab Q-42) for translation of Russian portion. See CD 5, p. 135, re search of 214 W. Neely on 11/24/63.

Oswald's passport is pictured in Vol. 18, pp. 160-171. Marina's passport is pictured in Vol. 16, pp. 137-145. Her passport is stamped at Helmstadt (passing from East Germany to West Germany) and LHO's is not.

There were two pairs of men's shoes in LHO's room at 1026 N. Beckley. Marina cannot identify one pair. (See Vol. 1, p. 121; Vol. 16, p. 514; shoes are pictured in Vol. 24, p. 350) One pair described as "John Hardy brand" in Vol. 20, p. 636. There were only two Hardy Shoe Stores in Dallas in 1963 - one on Jefferson where Johnny Calvin Brewer worked (Vol. 24, p. 203), and one in South Oak Cliff Shopping Center.
